

The Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey Presents:
"A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder"

Saturday, May 18th, 12 pm Departure

When low-born Monty Navarro discovers he is eighth in line of the wealthy D'ysquith family, he begins down a hysterically ghoulish path on his way to the earldom. Will his cunning plot be uncovered, or will he be named the ninth Earl of Highhurst? And what about the two charming young women who have the would-be earl in their sights? Who will win his heart? With many twists along the way, the outcome is delightfully uncertain until the curtain falls.

Based on the 1907 novel The Autobiography of a Criminal and Sir Alec Guinness' 1949 comic film Kind Hearts and Coronets, Gentleman's Guide is filled with unforgettable music and non-stop laughs.

Dinner at Rod's Steak House a favorite at the Madison Hotel.
